cotal shipment to Europe to morrow.

Zimmermann & Forshay announce that for the present they will withhold the 500, 000 cunces of silver which they intended shipping to-morrow.

Money lent at 3½ a 4 per cent, on call. Bales of listed stock to day, 74, 900 shares; sales of oil, 17,000 barrels, and of silver.

778,000 cunces.

A. J. Weil, of St. Louis, who has just been elected to membership in the Stock Exchange, made his first appearance on the floor just before 3 o'clock. A broker knocked floor just before 3 o'clock. A broker knocked to change, had blanks for both son and Decker for the Pittsburgs.

The crowd had increased to about 1,500 by 4 o'clock.

As in the first game the Pittsburgers were first to bat.

Four balls put Sunday on first, Miller sacrificed him to second, and he scored on a passed ball. One run.

Hiooklyn made eleven runs, the elements being these:

Plukney's two baser. Sunday's muff of Burns's fiv. a wild pitch. Fours's two-banger and clever rieal of third, a base on balls, Smith's single, more base stealing. Gibson's wild throw to the plate, Donovan's safe hit and steal, another wild pitch.

Clark's base on balls. Obsorne's muff of Collins's fly. Pikney's second hit of the inning, another safe one by Burns and a sacrifice by Fours.

Second luming—Pittsburg had not recovered and was easily blanked.

Capt. Hecker shifted Osborn into the box. Begger to briffield and fithson to right field. Cartillers was struck by a pitched ball, got to third on Donovan's out, and Clark's base on balls, dodged the whole Pittsburg team and scored while Clark was dedicing all the fielders between econd and third. One run.

Third Inning—Pittsburg out, one-two-three.

Burns's double. Foutz's single to left, sacrifices by Terry and Smith—two more runs for Brooklyn.
Fourth Inning -- Fouts went into pitch and Terry went to first. Not a base for Pittea fouble and came in on Pinkney's home run hit.

Burns followed with a ripping three-bagger, and came in on Fout's two-baser to right. Three runs.

Fifth Inning—Pittsburg's blank constinued, but Miller got in a safe hit.

Brooklyn got two more runs in its half of the fifth and another in the sixth.

Acute from that there was no more scoring and the game was called on account of darkness after the first half of the eighth.

The one Brooklyn run in the sixth was a homer by Burns.
